Women’s and Gender Studies
Graduate Travel and Research Assistance (TRA) Application

Graduate students who are conducting research and/or presenting conference papers relevant to women’s and gender studies may apply to the Women’s and Gender Studies TRA Program for small grants to supplement other sources of funding. These grants, usually around $250, are evaluated based on merit, prestige of the conference, feasibility of research, and need. Papers that have already been presented outside TAMU are ineligible. Incomplete applications will be disqualified. Students enrolled in the Graduate Certificate Program, as well as those who have completed the Certificate, will receive priority consideration. To apply, please fill out the form below, attach all required documentation, and submit to the Women’s and Gender Studies Program, Bolton 314, or by email to annettej@tamu.edu. Grant applications are considered twice a year, with Fall applications due October 19, 2015 and Spring applications due March 15, 2016. Awards will be transferred to the graduate student’s home department.
